Anthem Texts

See Amid the Winter's Snow

Edward Caswall (1858)

See, amid the winter's snow, born for us on earth below,
See, the tender Lamb appears, promised from eternal years.

Refrain: Hail, thou ever blessed morn, hail, redemption's happy dawn,
Sing throughout Jerusalem: "Christ is born in Bethlehem". Alleluia!

Lo, within a manger lies He who built the lofty skies.
He, who, throned in light sublime, sits amid the cherubim. (Refrain)

Sacred infant, all divine, what a tender love was Thine,
Thus to come from highest bliss, down to such a world as this. (Refrain)

For unto Us a Child Is Born

Isaiah 9:6

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder:
and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Lullaby

John Ness Beck (1977)

A child, a holy child, fast asleep beneath a winter sky, is warm at rest at his mother's breast as she sings her lullaby.

The lambs, the cattle too are sleeping in a bed of hay, and all around there's no other sound than lullaby, lullaby.

Sleep, lullaby, sleep well, lullaby. My precious one, Lullaby, my love, my only son, new life has now begun.

So the story goes, once upon a winter morn, a tiny boy bringing love and joy, the Prince of Peace was born.

The Hands that First Held Mary's Child

Thomas Troeger (1986)

The hands that first held Mary's child were hard from working wood.
From boards they sawed and planed and filed and splinters they withstood.
This day they gripped no tool of steel, they drove no iron nail,
But cradled from the head to heel our Lord, newborn and frail.
When Joseph marveled at the size of that small breathing frame
And gazed upon those bright new eyes and spoke the infant's name,
The angel's words he once had dreamed poured down from heaven's height
And like the host of stars that beamed blessed earth with welcome light.

"This child shall be Emmanuel, not God upon the throne,
But God with us, Emmanuel, as close as blood and bone."

The tiny form in Joseph's palms confirmed what he had heard,
And from his heart rose hymns and psalms for heaven's human word.

The tools that Joseph laid aside a mob would later lift
And use with anger, fear, and pride to crucify God's gift.
Let us, O Lord, not only hold the child who's born today,
But charged with faith may we be bold to follow in His way.

Thou Who Wast Rich

Frank Houghton (1934)

Thou who wast rich beyond all splendor, all for love's sake becamest poor;
thrones for a manger didst surrender, sapphire-paved courts for stable floor.
Thou who wast rich beyond all splendor, all for love's sake becamest poor.

Thou who art God beyond all praising, all for love's sake becamest man;
stooping so low, but sinners raising heavenwards by thine eternal plan.
Thou who art God beyond all praising, all for love's sake becamest man.

Thou who art love beyond all telling, Savior and King, we worship Thee.
Emmanuel, within us dwelling, make us what thou wouldst have us be.
Thou who art love beyond all telling, Savior and King, we worship thee.

Angels Visit When We Sing

Thomas Troeger (2002)

Angels visit when we sing and the morning stars rejoice.

We can hear them echoing in each faithful heart and voice: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Angels visit when we sing as they did at Jesus' birth

And the music that they bring links the heavens with the earth. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Angels visit when we sing and remind us with their praise

Sin and death have lost their sting! For the crucified is raised! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Angels visit when we sing and our hearts are touched by fire

As our hymns and anthems ring with the sound of heaven's choir. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Shepherds' Carol

Traditional Austrian Carol

As lately we watched o'er our fields through the night. A star there was seen of such glorious light.

All through the night, angels did sing carols so sweet of the birth of a King.

His throne is a manger, His court is a loft. But hosts of bright angels, in strains sweet and soft,
Him they proclaim, our Christ by name, and earth, sky and air straight are filled with His fame.

Then Shepherds, be joyful, salute your new King, let hills and vales ring to the song that ye sing.

Blest be the hour, welcome the morn, for Christ our dear Savior on earth now is born.

All through the night, angels did sing carols so sweet of the birth of a King.

We Three Kings

John Henry Hopkins, Jr. (1820-1891)

We three kings of Orient are; bearing gifts we traverse afar,
Field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

Refrain: O star of wonder, star of light, star with royal beauty bright,
Westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain, gold I bring to crown him again,
King forever, ceasing never, over us all to reign. (Refrain)

Frankincense to offer have I; incense owns a Deity nigh;
Prayer and praising, all men raising, worship him, God on high. (Refrain)

Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume. Breathes a life of gathering gloom;
Sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying, sealed in the stone-cold tomb. (Refrain)

Glorious now behold him arise; King and God and sacrifice:
Heaven sings Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth replies: (Refrain)

In the Bleak Midwinter

Christina Rossetti (1872)

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan. Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone.

Snow had fallen snow on snow, snow on snow. In the bleak midwinter long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold Him, nor earth sustain,
Heaven and earth shall flee away, when He comes to reign.

In the bleak midwinter, a stable place sufficed, The Lord God Almighty Jesus Christ.

Angels and archangels may have gathered there, Cherubim and seraphim thronged the air'
But His mother only in her maiden bliss, Worshiped the beloved with a kiss.

What can I give Him, poor as I am? If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb.

If I were a wise man, I would do my part, Yet what I can I give Him, give my heart.

A Christmas Blessing

Church of Ireland Prayer Book

May the joy of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds,

The worship of the wisemen and the peace of the Christ Child be yours this Christmas.

May Christ, who by his incarnation gathered into one all things earthly, fill you with joy and peace.

And the blessing of God the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit be with you and remain with you always.

Amen.
